NO DESTINATION

Australia - Indonesia - New Zealand

language: ITALIAN

From the author of Australia: when a dream comes true and The Moon Bay, a new and extraordinary story. Australia, New Zealand and Nias - Sumatra (Indonesia).

Among the Indian Ocean and Pacific Ocean, a journey in search of waves on three "islands" that are home to enchanted beauty.

A true story out there looking for something, which leads inevitably to look inside. This is how the "excuse" of the research of the waves, the need to immerse themselves in the wild and unspoiled nature, bring Winki from time to time to rediscover an inner truth.

No Destination is the story of an observant traveler, which broadcasts in simple love of nature, the sea and the life that lie at the heart of each of us ... And as the author says, "go get help the superfluous and the cortex that we have built on, making the move from one place to another in a way to ourselves. Because in the end the journey is like life is a journey "
