The CJ Nelson Designs' The Sprout Thunderbolt Silver Surfboard is CJ's favorite surfboard of all time. Originally shaped by Washington's Dane Perlee and now resurrected and tweaked by Californian shaper Ryan Engle. This is an updated replica of the board CJ rode in Thomas Campbell's movie "The Sprout". Without a doubt, the best nose riding surfboard CJ has ever owned. Regarded by many as the best noserider of all time, this board was designed to take to Malibu or Scorpion Bay and hang ten. A must-have for any point break, tip dwelling, longboard enthusiast.
